YEAR 6 AND HOLIDAYS IN TERM TIME.

This year, Year 6 have statutory tests in May, which, like GCSE and A Levels, cannot be taken at other times.

We will be preparing the children for these tests, to make the process as smooth and easy as possible for everyone.

There is a lot of content to teach, so full attendance in Y6 – and being in school on time every day - is essential.

The pupils will also be doing a pantomime in the summer term, and it's their chance to show off their talents to everyone, as they will be the lead actors and performers, this year! We want them all here for that, not just on the day, but in all rehearsals too. It's their special time.

For this reason, HOLIDAYS IN TERM TIME ARE NOT PERMITTED FOR ANY PUPILS IN YEAR 6, IN PARTICULAR. We expect the support of all parents on this occasion.

Therefore, with the governors' consent, we will refer any such incidences for a fixed penalty fine and possible prosecution.

Yours sincerely

Mr Hughes
